

Dear Guest, Dear Reader,

Here we are, back to tell you about all that's new at ADI HOTELS. I hope that this new, and direct, relationship – both as cordial as it is wholly sincere – is to your liking.

ADI means Hotels Where You Can Meet. The image of the ADI woman - elegant and sophisticated - is with us at every event that we put on, assisted by our internationally famous maestro, Amleto Dalla Costa.

ADI not only implies a place where you can stay. It is also a place where culture, art, music and leisure time meet.

The Doria Grand Hotel and the Hotel Poliziano Fiera are both part of ADI in Milan. These are two hotels - in increasingly the most strategic areas of the city - that are both passionate about hospitality.

In both hotels there are areas for a variety of exhibitions and events. At the Grand Hotel there are live jazz evenings at the Caffè Doria. The finest of palates are satisfied at "Il Capriccio", where countless associations and clubs are based - just mention Capricci di Gola. At the "Le Cupole" Bistrot at the Hotel Poliziano Fiera dinners and special events may be organised with a Private Chef or a Milanese aperitivo on the patio.

I eagerly await your ideas, comments and suggestions. You may write your comments on the quality of our hospitality on www.tripadvisor.it.

I would also like to invite you to ask for the ADI CARD, allowing you to benefit from a number of special deals and advantages – in a variety of places (shops and more) - according to the type of room you book.

I would also like to remind you that ADI HOTELS welcomes our four-footed friends and offers them the most "royal" of treatments.

Yours sincerely,
Andrea Bertolio
Amministratore Delegato
